

Hotel Ellique, by foot

The shortest route by foot is via St. Athanasios Gate (next to Saint Francis church). Once through the walking bridge (over the moat) and the inner gate, you will find yourself inside the cobblestoned Old Town. Walk straight ahead and very soon the road turns to the right and changes into Omirou Street. Follow this until you get to a crossing and turn left into St. Fanouriou Street. Then take the first tiny street to the left and you should see the sign hanging outside Hotel Ellique.

Off season taxis do drive into the Old Town certain times. If so, you can ask to be taken to the Hamam (3). The taxi should drive in via Arsenal Gate, a short bit up Sokratous, and then to the left through a few turns until it reaches the Hamam.

If you come by the Dodecanese Express ferry or Cruise ship your closest gate is Kolona Gate. If you arrive by larger ferries (Blue Star for example) you might want to take a taxi to St. Athanasios gate, or alternatively walk via Akandia gate (a 25 min walk).
